

Abdul Azim Islahi is Professor at the Islamic Economics Institute and the Chief Editor of the Journal of King Abdulaziz University - Islamic Economics. He has spent more than 35 years in research, teaching and expanding the frontiers of the discipline of Islamic economics. He obtained his Ph.D. from the Aligarh Muslim University, India in 1981. He is a World authority on history of Islamic economic thought. He has to his credit 15 books and more than 100 research papers, reviews and article in English, Arabic and Urdu. He has contributed four articles to the Encyclopaedia of Islamic Economics (London, 2009). His distinct contribution is filling the research gap in history of Islamic economic thought by series of studies covering from the 1st A.H. /7th C.E. Century to 13th A.H. / 19th C.E. Century. His research papers have appeared in professional and refereed international journals such as History of Political Economy; History of Economic Ideas; Islam and Christian-Muslim Relations; Journal of King Abdulaziz University: Islamic Economics; Journal of Research in Islamic Economics, Thoughts on Economics, Hamdard Islamicus, Quarterly Journal of the Pakistan Historical Society, Review of Islamic Economics, IIU Journal of Economics and Management; American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences; Islamic Economic Studies; Journal of Objective Studies, Journal of Islamic Banking and Finance, etc.

E-Mail: aaislahi@hotmail.com, aaislahi@kau.edu.sa