

BRIEF CV.MNSIDDIQI

Born 1931,in Gorakhpur, India into a religious family tracing its origins to Muslims coming to India as Qadis( paternal side) and religious guides(maternal side) six to seven centuries back.

Educated in local Maktab, local College,Aligarh Muslim University and SanviDarsgah,Jama 'at e Islami Hind,Dr.Siddiqi served as Professor of Islamic Studies at Aligarh and Professor of Economics at King Abdulaziz University,Jeddah. He has also worked at the University of California ,Los Angeles, the Islamic Development Bank,Jeddah and International Islamic University, Malaysia.

Author of Banking without Interest and more than a dozen other works related to Islamic Economics and Finance ,he has also written on issues related to Islamic Law, Politics and the Islamic Movement. Awarded King Faisal International Prize in Islamic Studies (1982),he has received numerous other awards and honors including the position of Professor Emeritus at his alma mater,the Aligarh Muslim University.

Closely associated with the efforts to promote Islamic Economics and Finance in India, Professor Siddiqi divides his time between USA, his country of citizenship and India, his country of birth.